

Leading Organisations

A leading-edge and challenging leadership programme addressing all facets of leadership in an integrated fashion: organizational, inter-personal and emotional intelligence. We work with you enabling you to operate at a strategic level within your organisation and make the best of your resources. You will recognise the need to innovate for continuous improvement and increase your awareness of the need to optimise performance. If you regularly present arguments for change, construct business cases, lead change implementation and evaluate the impact of that change then this programme is for you. This is aimed at achieving strategic clarity and translating strategy into action.

This programme has been designed for Full-time leaders that have either:

- A minimum of 1-year experience managing other leaders.
- Hold a senior leadership position within an organisation such as Business Unit Director or Divisional Manager.
- Reached a point where it would be helpful to reflect on own leadership strengths and build a new level of self-awareness around personal leadership style.

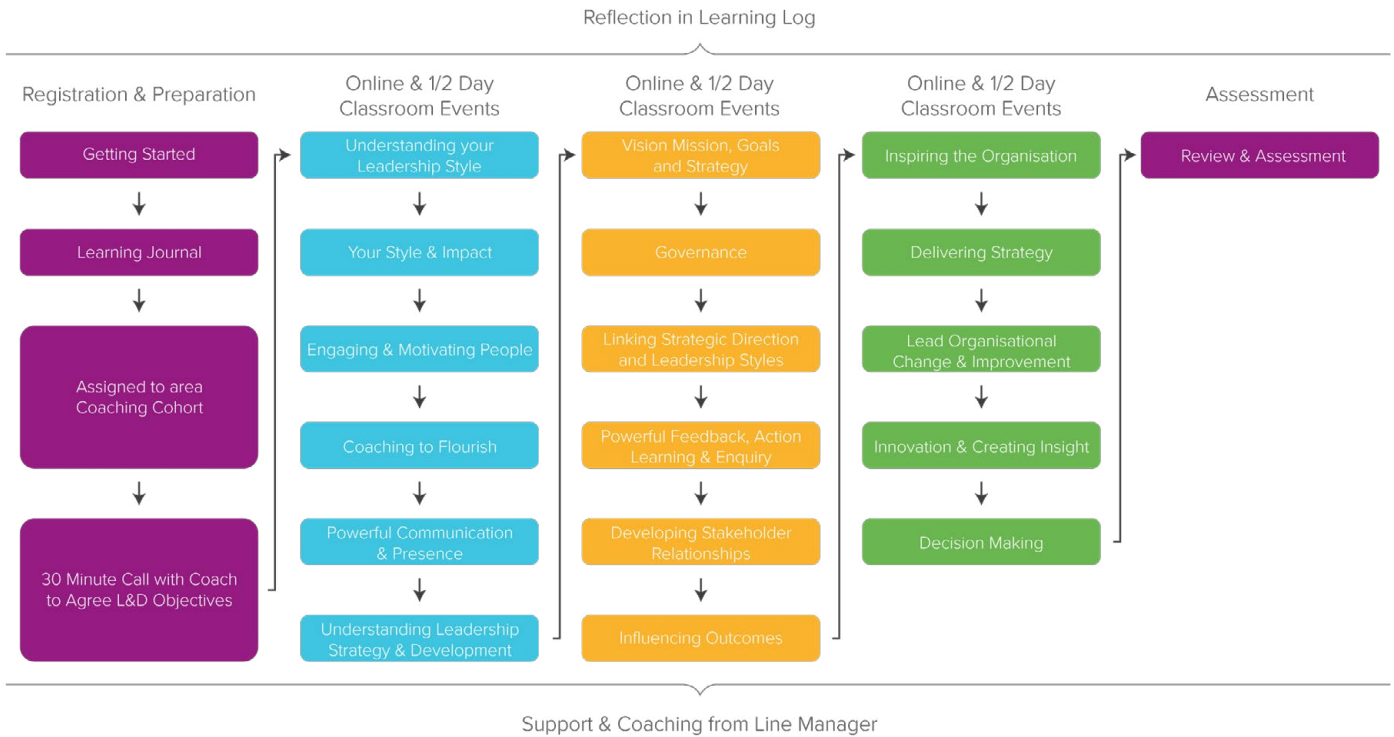

This course will ensure learners are able to:

- Develop organizational vision, mission, goals and strategy.
- Inspire the organisation, lead organisational change and nurture innovation.
- Lead across organisational boundaries.
- Learn the art of collaboration.
- Develop powerful stakeholder relationships.
- Solve complicated problems & take wise action in complex, rapidly changing conditions.
- Manage stress, build resiliency & leverage multiple life roles.
- Build a network of supportive leaders to continue development.

This programme comprises 17 learning modules delivered by an experienced faculty of leadership trainers. Learners or organisations can select all or a number of these modules to form an integrated learning pathway.

There is an additional option to gain a qualification from the Institute of Leadership & Management (ILM) at Level 7 through the completion of assignments alongside the learning content.
