ILM Level 3 Award in Leadership & Management

Qualification Overview

You will cover two units with the following key learning points:

Unit 1 – Understanding Leadership

- The factors that will influence the choice of leadership styles or behaviours in workplace situations.
- How leadership styles and behaviours are likely to have a positive or negative effect on the behaviour of teams and individuals.
- An assessment of your own leadership behaviours and your organisation's working practices and culture, using feedback.
- Identification of appropriate actions to enhance own leadership behaviour.

Unit 2 - Leading and Motivating Teams Effectively

- The importance of creating a common sense of purpose that supports overall vision and strategy.
- An assessment of your own communication skills in establishing a common sense of purpose.
- The importance of being able to motivate teams and individuals to gain commitment to objectives.
- A range of techniques to motivate teams and individuals.
- Exploring the leader's role in supporting and developing teams, with practical examples.

Programme Features

Induction

At the start of the programme we will arrange a 1-hour webinar to take you through all aspects of your learning journey and explain how we will work with you at every stage. You will also receive a candidate handbook capturing all the information you will need to help you study.

Assessment

You will complete two structured assignments of approximately 1,500 words each. We will provide you with detailed input and guidance on completing your assignments and feedback on your drafts.

Tutorial Support

Throughout your programme, you will receive 1:1 support from a specialist tutor, who will be available for you via both phone and email between webinars.
